

Ms. Rashmi Aiyappa speaks on Life - An Ageless Phenomenon at the World Congress on Gerontology and Geriatrics on Healthy Ageing in Changing Times.

A beautiful afternoon saw a large audience eagerly awaiting Ms. Rashmi Aiyappa's talk on Life - An Ageless Phenomenon, in the spiritual section of the conference. Ms. Rashmi Aiyappa shared the innermost workings of a human life, throwing light on alterations brought in the human systems that lead individuals to biologically age faster. She shared deep insights on increasing incidence and prevalence of genetic, degenerative, chronic and other types of illnesses plaguing the elders of our society, not to mention the reducing life-span of human beings. Ms. Rashmi Aiyappa spoke of hope and how it is necessary in today's world, so that individuals in later part of their life can experience their life and age completely, rather than being afraid of an inevitable outcome. Doctors, scientists, students and lay people were intrigued by a new possibility and a unique view of human life, aging and experiences. Many followed Ms. Rashmi Aiyappa out of the hall after her talk to have further conversations. To hear the entire speech order her CD now. Request Ms. Rashmi Aiyappa to share her insights at conference or public forums on topics of global concern.
